HEADWAY'S CEO J.P. SAKEY TO SPEAK ON BUSINESS IMPACT OF HEALTH CARE LEGISLATION AT ASSOCIATION FOR CORPORATE GROWTH PANEL

HEADWAY'S PRESIDENT TO JOIN OTHER CEO'S AND EXECUTIVES FOR DISCUSSION ON HOW HEALTH CARE REFORM WILL AFFECT WORKERS AND THE BOTTOM LINE OF BUSINESS

RALEIGH, NC — OCTOBER 8, 2010 -- Headway Corporate Resources announced today that the company's CEO and President, J.P. Sakey will be speaking on a CEO panel discussion presented by the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG). The breakfast session, entitled: Health Care Reform: No Politics, Just the Facts - The Bottom Line Impact on Your Business, will take place at the Sheraton Imperial Hotel on October 28, 2010 from 7:30am-9:00am.

The session will address the impact on business from the recent health care reform legislation and some of the areas discussed will include: Health care background and key goals of the legislation; Summary of mandatory health plan changes; New compliance obligations; Non health care provision; and the legislation's P&L impact.

"Health care legislation will have a game changing impact on businesses and the workers that organizations employ," stated J.P. Sakey, Headway's President and CEO. Sakey also said, "The profit and loss impact to businesses may not be fully realized for years, but it will be material in both direct costs in coverage and premiums and in-direct costs in needing to add staff for regulatory and tax compliance issues."

Also participating in the panel are Lori Spivey, President Financial Directions, Cyril Joseph, Ernst & Young and Dana Simpson, Partner, Smith Anderson.
